

WINGS AND A PRAYER

PRAYING CARDS

WINGS AND A PRAYER

In Luke 11:1 we hear the disciples ask Jesus the question, "Lord, teach us to pray".

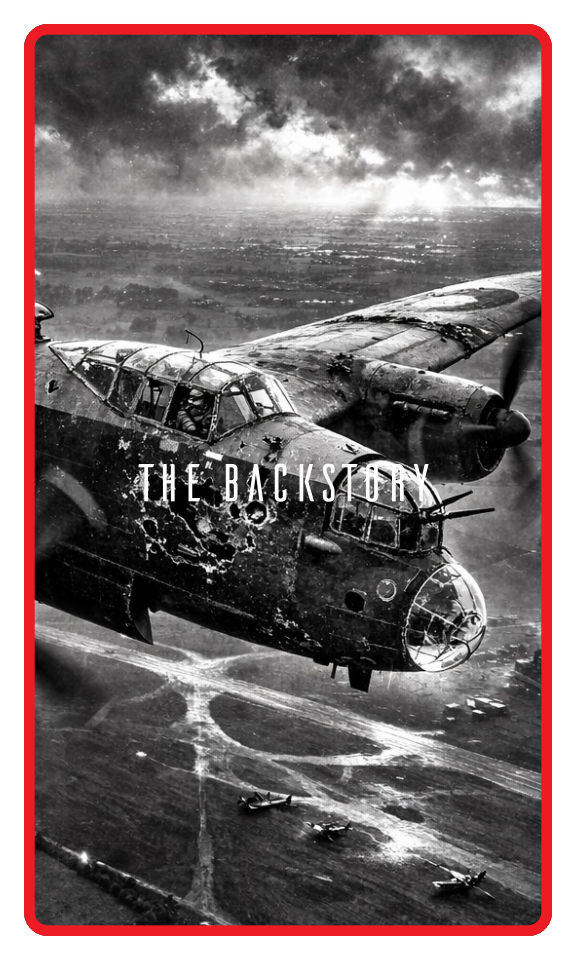

With some chicken wings and the conviction that praying through Scripture is what we need more of these days, you can host an event where prayer takes flight.

Each Praying Card contains hand picked verses and prayer prompts to ensure a Scriptural foundation for your night.

And while a plate of chicken wings may be the initial draw, as the night unfolds, as each prayer is offered, something truly special takes place. Minutes turn to hours.

A deep sense of camaraderie forms while fighting on the battlefield of prayer together.

Hearts are united in the beauty of Christ, the abundant blessings that are ours in Christ Jesus, and His all sufficient grace that supplies for every need.

A dramatic black and white aerial photograph of a B-24 Liberator bomber. The aircraft is shown from a low angle, appearing to fly towards the viewer. It is heavily damaged, with significant portions of its fuselage missing, revealing the internal structure and engine compartments. The wings are also marked with battle damage. The cockpit area is visible, showing the pilot's position. Below the aircraft, a cityscape is visible, with a large, bright explosion or fireball rising from the ground, illuminating the scene. Several other smaller aircraft are visible in the distance, also appearing to be part of the mission. The sky is filled with dark, heavy clouds, adding to the somber and intense atmosphere of the image. The text "THE BACKSTORY" is overlaid in a white, serif font across the center of the image.

THE BACKSTORY

THE BACKSTORY

The song, "Coming in on a Wing and a Prayer" was written in 1943 by Harold Adamson and Jimmy McHugh during World War II. It was inspired by real accounts of Allied bombers that returned from missions over Europe so badly damaged they were barely able to stay airborne.

Crews would limp home with engines failing, wings torn, and fuselages riddled with holes – surviving, as the phrase suggests, on "a wing and a prayer."

This is the inspiration for our Prayer Cards, with the acknowledgment that we cannot stay airborne, let alone make it "home", without the mighty hand of God in our lives. We are deeply dependent on Him, and prayer as our lifeline to that need.

INSTRUCTIONS

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Serve and enjoy wings prior to prayer
2. For large groups, break off into small prayer circles of 8-12 people
3. Shuffle the verse cards and distribute
4. Allow for a moment of reflection for everyone to consider their verse
5. Encourage everyone to look up their verse in the Bible for more context
6. Each card comes with prompts for praying with Adoration, Confession, Thanksgiving, and Supplication as the fourfold response to the verse (A.C.T.S.)
7. Before each prayer read the verse aloud
8. Pray through the verse with Adoration, Confession, Thanksgiving, and Supplication as the focus of the prayer
9. As time permits, reshuffle and redistribute the cards for another round
10. Alternatively, pray around the circle in four rounds: one round each for Adoration, Confession, Thanksgiving, and Supplication

WINGS AND A PRAYER

PRAYING CARDS

WINGS AND A PRAYER

ADORATION

This is to lift your heart to God in deep love, worship, and reverence simply for who He is. It focuses not on asking for anything but on praising His character—His holiness, power, goodness, and majesty. Adoration is a posture of awe that honors God above all else and aligns the heart to delight in Him.

WINGS AND A PRAYER

PRAYING CARDS

WINGS AND A PRAYER

CONFESSION

This is to acknowledge the ways you fall short of the glory of God, with a humble and repentant heart. It involves agreeing with God about what is wrong, taking responsibility, and seeking the forgiveness only found in Jesus' sacrifice. Pray with a sensitivity to the social setting, as not all confessions are suitable for large groups.
